

SCENE West Hollywood Wedding

Initially hesitant to go out to dinner with Scott because of his flashy red tennis shoes, Jamie is happy she took the risk. "I'm glad I decided to go for it," she says. "One of the things I really love about him now is his flair."

JAMIE TOBIN & SCOTT TIANO

*March 22, 2013
The London West Hollywood
Photos by Amy and Stuart Photography*

THE COUPLE Set up by mutual friends four and a half years ago, the couple's initial happy hour meeting instantly blossomed into something special.

THE DETAILS Julie Pryor of Pryor Events designed the elegant affair, which took place on the hotel's rooftop, and Gordon Ramsay's impeccable cuisine wowed. THE PARTY Music from DJ Jon Brown transformed the elegant setting into a party, while midnight snacks and a photo booth kept guests reveling well into the evening. —Laura Eckstein

Caramels from Fran's Chocolates made for sweet favors.

The bride's cousin, Jamison Tobin, is showered with love by the bride's sister-in-law, Katie Tobin and aunt, Debbie Tobin.

The bride donned Monique Lhuillier.

A rooftop outdoor ceremony at The London West Hollywood wowed guests with beautiful city vistas.

The Butter End Cakery created the delicious chocolate and almond cake.

The polished affair featured an elegant color scheme and pared-down decor.